

A glimpse of...

Life

Buying $0.20 piles of clams from our neighbor.

American hamburgers with our local Pastor's family.

Christmas

We spent Christmas out in a remote city in the interior of Guinea-Bissau, gathered with missionary friends from all over the world. We played games, grilled meat, and shared stories while switching back and forth between a variety of languages so that everyone was included in the fun.

An Upcoming Project

This remote school

needs a roof.

We're blessed by the chance to be the hands and feet (and welders) of God — helping projects that show God's love to the people of Guinea-Bissau by meeting tangible needs while also training our welding students!
